Jesus, Misogyny, and Patriarchy: An Exploration of the Bible with Minister Jennifer Fowler & Dr. Edwin Lee (Room E-209)

In this engaging and thought provoking course, NSI participants will explore the life and teachings of Jesus. They will use inductive Bible study to examine the role and ministry Jesus believed women have in the life of the Church and broader society. Participants will then explore how such beliefs have or have not shaped the role of women in today's church.

II Corinthians- The Life that Counts with Charles Byrd (E-107)

In this course, NSI participants will be led through the Book of II Corinthians exploring how to live a life that counts! Student will take a comprehensive look at II Corinthians,

Music Ministry: More Than an A and B Selection with Dr. Merlyn Ruffin (E-204)

In this spirit-led course, NSI participants will focus on music ministry as a vehicle for worship rather than entertainment or performance. We will look at how the intentionality of discipline, focus and structure contribute to a successful music ministry and one that achieves more than simply being a prelude to the sermon.

Finding Peace in God's Pauses and Delays with Dominique Gunn (E-104)

In this course, NSI participants will learn how to wait well. We are all waiting on God to move in our lives and this will be an opportunity to help you continue to connect with God even when you don't understand His timing. Additionally, we pray that this course helps you not waste your wait and find comfort in the space you are currently in.
